

1.) Match every preposition to the case it belongs to.

We learned that there are preposition for genitive, dative and accusative AND two way prepositions. Try to do this exercise at first without the help of the theory part 4 Fälle. Check afterwards your solution.

~~um~~ / wegen / bei / innerhalb / von / bis / gegen / an / aus / anstatt / nach / vor / unter / während / hinter / seit / trotz / mit / außer / neben / ohne / über / durch / auf / gegenüber / für / außerhalb / zwischen / in / zu

case	preposition
genitive	_____
only dative	_____
only accusative	um , _____
dative or accusative (two way preposition)	_____

2.) If you see a two way preposition, how do you know if the noun has to be in the dative or accusative case?

3.) Fill in the demonstrative pronoun dies- and add the correct ending depending on the preposition (accusative, dative and genitive)

hint: There are situations where the noun requires an additional ending. Read the theory part on page 2 again if necessary.
